Mr. and Mrs. Black, Man Who Built Bank Bldg., Returns

H. G. Black, general contractor, who built many of the first buildings in Torrance has returned to this city after eight years' absence to re-enter the building business. Mr. Black came to Torrance in 1913 when the population of this city was little over 200. He remained here for ten years during which time he built over 100 houses and a number of business blocks including the First National Bank building.

Mr. and Mrs. Black are living in the Mowry Court, No. 5, 1617 Arlington avenue—one of the structures he built during his early residence in this city. For the present, Mr. Black will conduct his business from this address and his telephone number is 839-M. He will accept contracts on remodeling work as well as new construction.

During the past eight years, Mr. and Mrs. Black have been living in Glendale and Fontana. They were busy this week renewing old acquaintances here.

HARD TIMES PARTY HONORS DEPARTING GUEST

LOMITA—Mr. and Mrs. Tom Willacy, James Willacy, Miss Ann Walker and Mr. and Mrs. Mark Francis attended a hard times party Saturday night at the home of Mrs. Edgar Sargent of Los Angeles. About thirty-five friends and relatives, all in costume, gathered at the home of Mrs. Sargent for a farewell party, as Mrs. Sargent leaves soon for a visit to her old home in England.

Mr. and Mrs. Black are living in the Mowry Court, No. 5, 1617 Arlington avenue—one of the structures he built during his early residence in this city. Funeral Service for C. C. Arnold Very Impressive

As a token of honor and esteem, all independent grocers closed Monday afternoon, during the funeral of Cassius M. Clay Arnold of 2513 Carson street, who passed away February 27, after a short illness at the Jared Sidney Torrance Memorial hospital. Arnold, who was the proprietor of Arnold's Market at the Carson street address, was 62 years old.

Impressive funeral rites were held at the Stone and Myers chapel Monday. Rev. R. A. Young had charge and the Knights of Pythias lodge conducted the grave service at Roosevelt Memorial Park. As a resident of Torrance for nearly seven years, Arnold made many friends and took an active part with them in his civic, business and lodge life.

He was born at Lake City, Minn., July 3, 1868. In 1894 he married Emma Karlen, of Vilas, So. Dak., and then went to Canada where he engaged in grain buying. Arnold is survived by his wife, two daughters, Mrs. J. Bowers of this city and Mrs. W. Jeffery of Canada; three sons, Roy W. of Glendale, Roy C. and Gordon of this city; two sisters, Mrs. S. M. Saffron of San Pedro, and Mrs. J. A. Halley of Reddy, Minn.; a brother, Joseph E. of Flandreau, So. Dak., and four grandchildren.
